Finish Options

Polished brass

Antique hammered brass

Antique hammered copper

Antique hammered black bottom with hammered polished brass door

Note the brass mailboxes (polished, black bottom, or antique brass) have a lacquer finish to help protect them. The copper mailboxes do not have a lacquer finish and will form a natural patina over time.

Finish information: If you want a refined look, choose the polished brass finish. If you want a rustic look, choose the hammered finish. The rustic antique hammered finish is hand hammered, scuffed, and buffed. Please note that this finish may show some scuff (sanding) marks. This is part of the rustic character of this finish and is not a defect.

Finish protection: To help preserve the polished finishes, we recommend a clear, no-buff car wax. Clean the mailbox periodically with warm soapy water and a soft cloth, rinse and dry with a soft cloth. Then apply no-buff car wax. Polished brass finishes are not recommended for corrosive salt-air locations.
